CLINCHING THE CRIME.

THE GRIP OF THE LAW TIGHTENS ON JOHN ARENSDORF.

Discovered Graphically Tells the Story of the Murder and Fully Corroborates Leavitt—An Express Messenger Shot and His Safe Robbed—The Nichols Murder Trial—Ways of the Wicked.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., March 31.—Wednesday was the most interesting and exciting day so far of the Haddock trial, and the court-room was jammed from the opening to the closing hour. Mrs. Haddock, the widow of the murdered clergyman, occupied front seat within the bar, and evinced deep grief as Robert Kosnitz, better known as "Bismarck," the eye-witness of the tragedy who was arrested and brought back from San Francisco. His eyes in broken German, and his testimony was at once forcible, interesting, and graphic. He related how Treiber had induced him to hunt up Grandma, and tell him if he would witness the "priest" and give him two black eyes he would receive $500, and how Grandma finally weakened and consented to whip Haddock. Bismarck continued, thoroughly corroborating Leavitt, and describing minutely every movement of the conspirators on that fatal day which led up to the homicide, including the meeting of Haddock and Arensdorf, and how the latter, after passing the "priest," suddenly whirled and fired the loaded messenger of death. The illustration was most dramatic, and a breathless silence followed the realistic description.

The witness related all about how Arensdorf had given him, through Treiber, $12 to catch the country; how he ("Bismarck") got drunk, his wife took the money, and then Arensdorf approached him with the words: "Why have you not left? Did you not get the money from Treiber to go to St. Cloud? Here you will get drunk, tell what you know, and then be sent to the penitentiary. I have plenty of money, and they will never send me to jail." The witness described his being driven to Salix, where Fritz Polger gave him more money—$15—and then Haddock went to San Francisco. When he came back to Onasha he was shown a picture of Harry Leavitt, and assured by the mayor and city marshal of Onasha that it was a picture of the man whom they believed had done the shooting. He told them, when it was not, though they insisted, he emphatically maintained then and there that John Arensdorf was the murderer.

The witness' testimony was most thorough and exact from beginning to end, and a rigid cross examination failed to cripple it in the least. So far the state has made a wonderful strong case. During the afternoon, while "Bismarck" was graphically describing the murder, Mrs. Haddock suddenly fainted and was carried into an adjacent room. Refreshments were administered and she soon rallied and again appeared in the court room.

EXPRESS MESSENGER SHOT.

One Man Does the Deed and Robs the Safe of an Unknown Safe.

UTICA, N. Y., March 31.—"Telegraph Hutt, at Albany, that I have been shot and robbed." These were the words uttered by Express Messenger Lake, running on train No. 50 on the West Shore road, which arrived in Utica at 1:15 Wednesday night, when he was found lying in his car bleeding freely from a wound in his shoulder. While the train was making the run between Clark Mills and this city, which only occupies seven minutes, one man boarded it between the baggage and express car, shot the messenger and robbed the safe, but with what result or how severely the man is injured could not be learned, as a step of only three minutes was made here and there. The local expressman could not open the door when the car reached here, and his suspicions were aroused. He forced the door open, and found the messenger wounded as stated. When the train reached Frankfort, nine miles east of here, Lake was attended by a physician. The would-be robber escaped.

The Nichols Murder Case.

MORRIS, Ill., March 31.—In the Schwartz-Watt murder trial, Wednesday, Englewood continued his testimony. He described the blood-stains in Nichols' car, and the appearance and location of the baggage and express motor. Smoke and clouds from the engine fell so thickly on the car that it would be next to impossible for a man to remain upon the roof and cover Watt with a revolver thrust through the transom. The train pulled out from the chute so rapidly that it would have been impossible to jump aboard. Napoleon Briggs, who was foreman for Engineer Woods the night of the murder, was called and corroborated most of the testimony of Woods.

"Rock and Rye" Man Commits Forgery.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—A warrant is out for the arrest of S. Edgar Holl, formerly engaged as one of the firm of B. F. Holl & Son in manufacturing "Rock and Rye" liquor, charged with forging the names of various persons to paper amounting to $10,000. The complainant, the Independent National bank, is secured and will lose nothing by the forgery.

Cheated the Executioner.

ST. LOUIS, March 31.—William Dille, who murdered his wife by cutting her throat with a razor, died Tuesday evening in his cell. His death resulted from gangrene in the wound he inflicted on himself in his effort to commit suicide after the murder.

Decision in a Land Case.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The case of W. H. Coyne against the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railway has been decided in favor of Mr. Coyne by the committee of the grand national office. The tract involved embraces 100 acres of land adjoining the town of Texarkana, Ark. The decision affirms that a pre-emption right exists had from a railroad grant originally with a homestead claim, and that the validity of the claim against the United States cannot be challenged by the railroad company, nor can the company take advantage of any laches on the part of the settler, when a claim that served to except a tract of land from a railroad grant is later extinguished, the land reverts to the government, and does not inure to the grant, and the company can not therefore take advantage of a subsequent abandonment of a claim to land that was never granted to it.

A Plea for Special Delivery.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Postmaster General Viles has issued a circular letter to postmasters, calling attention to the special delivery system, and urging them to commend its use to the public as worthy of confidence. Its value, he says, will grow with the growth of business—every increase of patronage bringing with it the means of increased efficiency.

More Anti-Railway Law.

ASTORIA, Ore., March 31.—The senate has passed a bill imposing a penalty of from $1,000 to $4,000 upon owners and agents of railroads who violate section 5 of the constitution, which forbids consolidation of parallel and competing lines.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cove, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phtisis, also Diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried electric Euter and taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Frank Sherer & Co.

Don't be humbugged into buying a poor porous plaster. Ask for "Fomory's Petrolene Plaster." Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

HOW ARE YOU CONSCIOUS?

The Man Who Bought a Substitute Seem To Be Healthy as a Cheek.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The critic publishes the following interview with a United States senator about the efforts of a man to secure the passage of a novel pension bill to provide pecuniary relief for patriots who paid for substitutes during the war of the rebellion.

"Of all the bills which have ever been suggested for the relief of men who were in any way connected with the war, I think the one I received a few days before congress adjourned is by far the best," said a United States senator. "The bill was prepared by a citizen of my state, and is well drawn. It proposes to provide for the payment, with interest, of money expended in securing a substitute for every man drafted in the war. The bill is a republican gentleman who lives in my town, and he wrote me a very good letter giving his reasons why the bill should become a law. He said the men who were drafted and who secured the arm and paid for their services, and were fully supplied with equipments and clothing by the government. On the other hand, those who were compelled to secure substitutes were necessarily obliged to pay out of their own pockets for their private resources, and although they made this sacrifice for the good of the country, they can not get a pension. Many of these drafted men, who were, who never went into the war, are now in straits for the payment of a substitute would be a great help to these suffering for the necessities of life."

"Do you think the man was really in earnest in asking you to introduce this bill?"

"Undoubtedly he was; and, furthermore, I think there is as much sense in it as there is in some of the so-called pension measures which have been introduced in the house or the senate during the last two years."

"I find it away for future consideration."

said the senator; "but I do not know that I shall ever consider it. I shall be in no hurry to introduce it, but shall canvass the matter with my colleagues in the senate."

Information for Stamp Collectors.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The post-office department will, within the next few months, issue four new envelope stamps, and a new adhesive stamp. These stamps will be of the denominations of 1 cent, 2 cents, 4 cents and 5 cents. The 1 cent envelope and 1 cent adhesive stamp will contain the head of Benjamin Franklin, side face, from portrait of bust of Franklin in the Library of Congress. The 2-cent envelope stamp will bear the head of Washington, side face, after Houdon's statue. The 4-cent envelope stamp will bear the head of Grant, side face, after Houdon's statue. The 5-cent adhesive stamp will bear the head of Grant, side face, after Houdon's statue. The head of Grant will still be retained on the 5-cent adhesive stamp. The colors of the new envelopes and adhesive stamps have not yet been decided upon.

Louisiana Potato Crop Damaged.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 31.—Considerable damage to the potato crop is reported from La Fourche, Bogalusa, and other portions of southern Louisiana, from a disease which is called the "blight" by the farmers. Up to a few days ago the disease was unknown in this region. The blight seems to be unevenly distributed, prevailing badly in some areas, while in a few other places it is wholly unaffected by it. Its extent can not be determined until the entire crop is in. The blight is connected by the farmers in some way with the use of fertilizers. Some think it is the same blight which proved so destructive to the potato crop in Ireland. The potato crop has grown to be one of the most profitable cultivated in this section and if the disease turns out to be as bad as is feared, it will be a serious loss to the farmers.

An Important Railway Proposed.

BOSTON, March 31.—A. S. Woodward (Mr.) detailed says: A. T. Stewart, one of the principal organizers of the Canadian Pacific railway, has completed a preliminary survey of the Boston & Quebec Air Line railway route from Stoughton, Mass., to Quebec, via Montreal, on the east side, through Madison, Solon, Dingham, and Moscow, over the mountains thirty miles to Moose River village, then connecting with the Canadian Pacific. At this point the Quebec Canadian line leads down to connect with the transcontinental junction of three immense railroad and river systems, in the very heart of the enormous lumber region of the St. John, Penobscot, and Kennebec rivers.

Landowner and O'Brien.

BOSTON, March 31.—An Ottawa special to The Herald says that agitation in Ireland from the engine fell so thickly on the car that it would be next to impossible for a man to remain upon the roof and cover Watt with a revolver thrust through the transom. The train pulled out from the chute so rapidly that it would have been impossible to jump aboard. Napoleon Briggs, who was foreman for Engineer Woods the night of the murder, was called and corroborated most of the testimony of Woods.

A Purely American Exhibit.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—Among the passengers on the steamship British Princess, of the American line, which sailed Wednesday, were John Van Meter and Alexander Ransom, two young Indians from the Lincoln institute. They are bound for London and will act as assistants at the American and colonial exhibition, which will open in that city in a short time. They represent the Sioux and Mohawk tribes, and go at the invitation of the British commissioners, their expenses being defrayed by trustees of the exhibition.

The Wind Blew Them Relief.

HALIFAX, March 31.—A magistrate, writing from Carleton, N. B., says: The prospect here has been gloomy in the extreme. Thousands of families in this and adjacent northern parts have been on the verge of starvation, but a provident relief has come. The wind, blowing from the northeast, has packed the bays with ice, and thousands of seals have been captured by hunters during the past few days. This timely supply will save people from starvation for the next two months.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, lakes and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the most common of general diseases, and are the most malodorous as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will cure either of them. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

"Oh! I had only known that in time."

Known what? "Known that a simple cold in the head may develop into a catarrh." Well, it isn't too late, for Ely's Cream Balm will cure either a cold or a catarrh of the head. It has become a burden to him, and he's a nuisance to his friends. It is the only radical and thoroughly scientific catarrh cure. Not a snuff. Not a liquid. Price fifty cents.

IMPORTANT TRUNK LINE ACTION.

A Rule That Will Abolish Ticket Scalping.—The Grand Trunk.

New York, March 31.—Important action was taken at the meeting of the joint committee of the trunk line companies and Central Traffic Association held in Commissioner P. H. H. office Wednesday. It was unanimously agreed to abolish entirely the payment of commissions to agents of connecting lines for the sale of passenger tickets. The system of paying ticket commissions has existed for twenty years, and now costs the railroads of the country about $5,000,000 annually. The abolition of the system will also drive ticket-scalpers out of business. The railroads belonging to the trunk line companies will also refuse to act as agents for connecting lines which continue to pay their agents a commission. This makes it doubly certain that the system will be abandoned everywhere.

Legislating Against Blacklisting.

MADISON, Wis., March 31.—A bill was passed by the house Wednesday making a combination among employers to refuse work to any person—blacklisting—punishable by a fine of $500. The bill also prohibits any employer from employing a person who has been blacklisted. The bill also prohibits any employer from employing a person who has been blacklisted. The bill also prohibits any employer from employing a person who has been blacklisted.

New Rates on the Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 31.—One of the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad company who assisted in the completion of the new rates, said that the new rates would be in effect on all lines north of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi, instead of the twenty-year-old rates which have been in effect since 1880. The new rates would be a greater charge for a short haul than for a longer haul. The rate on grain, which was 30 cents, is reduced to 25. The live stock rate will remain practically the same, but in a majority of cases the rates are decreased.

"The Modern Pagan," Pope Bob.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Gen. George A. Sheridan delivered the lecture of the series of lectures on the "Modern Pagan," at the Congregational church Wednesday night to a large audience. His lecture was an attack on Col. Robert G. Ingersoll's methods of dealing with and discussing religious subjects—a brilliant, entertaining and instructive oratorical effort, that was attentively listened to from beginning to end by his hearers. Secretary Lamar, who introduced the lecturer to the audience, as well as a number of other public officials, occupied seats upon the platform.

Evaded a United States Law.

BOSTON, March 31.—Halsey Gannon and Matthew Tanager, two boys who came to Boston as stowaways on the steamer Kansas, having made the fourteen-day trip from Liverpool without food or water, were taken from the steamer superintendent Wednesday morning by Irishmen. As they were pauper and friendless, the authorities had ordered the company to take them back to England, and they had been detained on board the steamer for that purpose.

Gone to Attend Election.

LANSING, Mich., March 31.—Both house of the state legislature adjourned Wednesday until after the election Monday. The house passed bills to abolish the Detroit board of education, appropriating for the state schools at Coldwater, and regulating the shipping, etc., of Texas cattle.

Ten Hours for Women and Children.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 31.—The senate Wednesday, by a vote of 10 to 3, passed the ten-hour law for women and children, already passed by the house. It is the same as the Massachusetts law. An amendment extending the law to manufacturing establishments was rejected by 18 to 5.

A Matrimonial Novelly.

BUFAFO, March 31.—Patrick Walsh, of New York, adopted the Hebrew faith Tuesday, was married Wednesday morning to Lena Levi, a young Jewish, also of New York.

Another Chase Ball Lesson in Savannah.

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 31.—Wednesday morning half of the Detroit club went to Charleston and played there, the remaining half staying in Savannah. The following result: Detroit 23, Savannah 1.

Subscribed Half a Title of His Win.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 31.—Mr. R. T. Bush, owner of the yacht Coronet, sent his check Wednesday for $500 for the Beecher memorial fund to the Rev. C. H. Hall.
